Steel

✓ LOW MAINTENANCE ✓ ROBUST AND DURABLE ✓ IDEAL FOR OUTDOOR USE

ABOUT THE MATERIAL

S235 steel is a strong and reliable material, perfectly suited for fire bowls. It retains its shape under high temperatures and remains stable even with intensive use. Thanks to its solid structure and high load-bearing capacity, S235 is a dependable choice for outdoor environments.

OTHER FEATURES

- Withstands heavy loads
- Combines strength with a sleek, industrial look
- Hard-wearing and tough

Complete your garden look

Pair the HALO fire bowl with our new SERRA log storage and instantly create a practical yet inviting corner in your garden. With its integrated bench, the SERRA not only adds atmosphere but also offers a comfortable seat around the fire. Its curved lines echo the design of the HALO, bringing everything together in one seamless whole.

Your firewood is always within reach—and it looks fantastic too.
